

CONDITION | HUMATE

Introducing our premium Condition / Humate blend, where nature and innovation come together seamlessly. Made with our signature worm extract and enhanced with Humic and Fulvic acids, this carefully filtered blend—down to 130 microns—is a game-changer for your garden. With each use, you're not just caring for your plants; you're supporting the heart of soil health and sustainability.

Say goodbye to stubborn, locked-up nutrients and welcome a thriving ecosystem with Microtek Organics' Condition / Humate. It's more than just a soil conditioner—it's your key to unlocking a soil that's vibrant, full of life, and ready to reach its true potential.

At Microtek Organics, we're more than just a product provider—we're building a community of like-minded, eco-friendly gardeners who care about quality and sustainability. Let's stay true to our values, keep it green, and make a real impact together, creating a healthier planet, one garden at a time.
